

Campus Poll

What's the craziest thing that's ever happened to you in your car?

Polls by Jason Drumm
Photos by Brandon Booth

In Alabama, me and my band were parked in a Suburban. The six of us got a sobriety test in a Wal-Mart parking lot! I didn't pass, but hey, we were PARKED!
-Kenneth Nixon

One night me and some friends stole a bucket of golf balls. They were throwing them out our window and my friend threw one in front of my car! It bounced up and hit a truck window and broke it!
-Brian Moore

I had a five pound bag of tootsie rolls and one of my buddies put 30 of them inside his mouth. He spit them in his hand and threw the wad at a car. It hit the car's windshield and busted it. We kept driving.
-Eric Longford

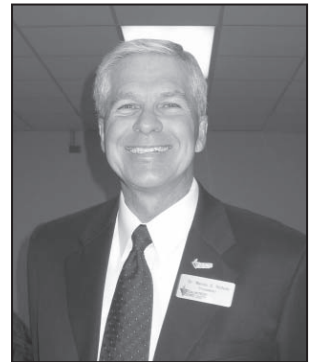

One night me and my friend were going to Downtown Nashville to watch our friend perform. The girl I was with pulled over and asked this 40 year-old lady for directions. The woman was homeless and tried to steal our money. It was a night to remember!
-Lindsay Langford

I walked out of the store and multiple friends had left butt prints all over my windows as well as pancakes all over the place. Kind of odd...
-Mindy Pankratz

I was driving on the interstate. My passenger door mirror and rear view mirror fell off all at the same time.
-Ashley Perry

I had a 1963 Plymouth Valiant. I was driving down the interstate and the heater hose broke, the car then overheated, all the while water was flooding in. I was soaked up to my ankles.
-President Nichols

Before thanksgiving one year, ma and my mom were driving down the road in the Excursion my step-dad just bought. Out of nowhere a huge turkey fell out of the sky and hit the windshield and busted it (the windshield, not the turkey).
-Ashley Brewington

Right after Christmas three years ago, I opened the door to park and I got robbed by two 30 year-old women. One sat in my lap, the other stole everything; insurance, registration, tags, debit card and $200!! A cop was sitting right in front of all this. I asked for help, he said, "Son are you drunk? Come back to the station after you wake up." He did nothing.
-Brandon Duke

My bff and I broke down in Mt. Juliet. A cop came and took us to the concert we were going to. Needless to say, we arrived in style. The cop opened the doors for us to get out.
-Brittany McCann